Mr. R. W. van de Velde, Faculty Secretary
Rockefeller Public Service Awards
Woodrow Wilson Hall, Princeton University
Princeton, New Jersey

Dear Bob:

Confirming our telephone conversation earlier this week, this is to request on behalf of Mr. Helms that you take all necessary steps to consider inactive his nomination for this year's Rockefeller Public Service Award in the field of Foreign Affairs. Mr. Helms feels deeply honored in having his name put forward by Mr. McCone, but in view of the President's recent appointment of Mr. Helms to his new post of Deputy Director of Central Intelligence, and because Mr. Helms has just been notified that he will receive the National Civil Service League Award next month, he prefers that there be no further action with regard to the Rockefeller Award.

It was good talking with you again. It's been a long time since our paths crossed. Best regards to you, and Angie joins me in best wishes to Barbara and Robin.

Sincerely,

S/Helms
